

Evans Geoffrey Mogeni is currently acting chairman department of Economics. He is lecturing in the department of economics, school of business and economics of Machakos University. He is currently finalizing his PhD in Economics at Kenyatta University. He holds an MA (Economics) and BA (Economics) from University of Nairobi. Mogeni brings on board over 10 years expertise gained from the public sector. He has research interest in international and public sector economics. He is a member of Partnership for economic policy (PEP)