

DR. FRANCIS MUTUA, (Ph.D)

EDUCATION:

Holder of Ph.D in Educational Communication and Technology from University of Nairobi (2013);

Master of Philosophy –Education (2008) from Moi University

B.ED (Arts), (1999), Kiswahili/CRE from University of Nairobi.

Diploma in Human Resource (2008) from KIM.

DESIGNATION:

Currently a lecturer- PhD (Dr.) holder in the school of Education

PREVIOUS DESIGNATION:

Lecturer of Kiswahili methods and Instructional methods (Karatina University), 2014 –January 2015.

ADMINISTRATION:

Currently the chair Educational Communication & Technology

2015 was acting chairman of Educational communication and Technology department and hosting the Department (s) of Early Childhood Education and Special Needs Education.

TEACHING AREAS:

Kiswahili subject methods, Instructional methods, Educational Technology, Design and production of Educational Media, Micro teaching and media practical.

RESEARCH INTEREST:

Assistive technology for disabled (visually and hearing impaired) students, teaching / learning methods and student performance. Instructional media.

PUBLICATIONS:

Published in refereed journals.

i).Assistive Technology intervention on hearing Impaired students' performance. A case of Kiswahili language in Teachers College. International journal of literacy and development ii).Language games and teaching in Kenya. The case of Kiswahili in lower schools. Journal of Education and practice iii).Need for integration of indigenous healing into western psychosocial interventions in trauma healing among victims of armed conflict in south Sudan.

SUPERVISIONS

Supervised two masters students and in the process of supervising others.

Currently supervising one PhD and 3 masters students.

OTHERS

Diploma in human Resource Management (Kenya institute of Management)

CONTACT:

Machakos University College, School of Education , P.O. Box 136 – 90100, Machakos, Kenya.

Telephone: (+254) 0791679945

Email: bfmutua50@yahoo.com